

Canada's Anti-Spam Law (CASL)

By checking the box below you agree to receive newsletters and other documentation (such as emails) containing information regarding our services, updates to tax regulations, reminders regarding deadlines, checklists to help you prepare your information, etc. from Curtis-Villar LLP.

You may withdraw consent at any time by opting out by emailing Victoria Curtis with the words “unsubscribe from CASL”, through our online client portal located on the client resource page of our website at www.curtisvillar.ca or by contacting our office in writing. Please refer to our privacy policy (located on the client resources page of our website: www.curtisvillar.ca/client-resources) or contact Victoria Curtis at vcurtis@curtisvillar.ca for more details.

Please note that by withdrawing consent you will no longer receive access to the client portal or notifications from it. In addition we will not provide any information electronically – which includes our planning notifications, newsletters, copies of information requested, etc.

I agree to receive electronic communications from Curtis-Villar LLP. I understand that I am providing express consent and that I can unsubscribe at any time.
